Getting Around on the Internet

i-SAFE Inc.

Fall 2006

There are lots and lots of things to do when you go online. Some of them are safe, fun and educational. Others just aren't appropriate for you. What does "appropriate" mean? Appropriate means that it is safe and ok for you to do it. Stay on appropriate Web sites by having your parents or teacher help you. One idea is to have them create bookmarks for you. Bookmarks are a list of Web site links that you can click on to instantly reach the places you and your parents know are good sites for you.

Sometimes Web sites come to you - they just pop up on your computer screen. That's what they are called - Pop-ups! Whenever you see a pop-up, click on the X in the top right hand corner of the pop-up window and get rid of it. Be careful out there - visit safe Web sites and have fun!

Here are some ideas for fun, safe things to do and places to go online:

What are some of the things you can do online that are appropriate (safe and ok!)? Well, a lot of that depends on the rules your teachers and parents set for you. It is always important to discuss rules for being online with them before you go on the Internet!

Here are some ideas for fun, safe things to do and places to go online:

- ◆ Send e-mail to family
- ◆ Visit favorite TV show Web sites
- ◆ Play games that have been pre-approved by your parents
- ◆ Look things up on online encyclopedias
- ◆ Do your homework

Think about it...

What do you like to do on the Internet?

List your favorite Web sites and share them with your class.

Cyberspace Maze

Find your way through Cyberspace. Start at the "Home Page" and end up at the "i-Buddy Zone".

Have an adult help you to go to the real i-Buddy Zone to play some games at www.isafe.org (Click on the i-Buddy Zone from the Educators page or just go to: http://www.isafe.org/channels/sub.php?ch=ed&sub_id=ibuddy.)

i-Buddy's CyberSpace Jokes

Every issue of i-Buddy times we ask for YOU to submit some jokes or drawings so we can highlight them in an issue. Well, Cory, took us up on our challenge! We are proud to feature his riddle.

Cory's Riddle:

Why did the computer use the restroom?

For the answer, turn paper upside down and see the answer below!

If you have a riddle, picture, poem, drawing, etc., you'd like to submit, please ask your teacher to send it to us at teachers@isafe.org.

Answer: To delete some files
